HOPING FOR SOMETHING BETTER

---

REFUSING TO SETTLE FOR LIFE AS USUAL

---

Tyndale House Publishers, Inc. Who wants to merely go through the motions of religion? We long for something authentic—something worth opening our hearts to, filling our minds with, and giving our lives for. We hope for something better than the “churchianity” of our parents and the vague spirituality of our neighbors, something better than guilt-induced, holier-than-thou morality, better than here-and-now, health-and-wealth promises. In her thought-provoking and authentic style, Nancy Guthrie shows that Jesus himself offers the something better we've been looking for, applying the truths of Hebrews to real-life issues such as guilt, shame, disappointment, hardship, unhealthy obsessions, personal ambition, and fear of death.

SERMONS 2864-2915

Delmarva Publications, Inc. Volume 50 Sermons 2864-2915 Charles Spurgeon (19 June 1834 – 31 January 1892) is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers. Called the “Prince of Preachers,” he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century, and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today. His sermons have spread all over the world, and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades. In his lifetime, Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people, often up to ten times each week. He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel (later the Metropolitan Tabernacle) in London for 38 years. He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons, commentaries, an autobiography, as well as books on prayer, devotionals, magazines, poetry, hymns and more. Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration, and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound. Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature. Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London: Volume 6 (1878) quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey: “Fancy a congregation consisting of 10,000 souls, streaming into the hall, mounting the galleries, humming, buzzing, and swarming—a mighty hive of bees—eager to secure at first the best places, and, at last, any place at all. After waiting more than half an hour—for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance—Mr. Spurgeon ascended his tribune. To the hum, and rush, and trampling of men, succeeded a low, concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion, which seemed to run at once, like an electric current, through the breast of every one present, and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours. It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse. It is enough to say of his voice, that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly; of his language, that it is neither high-flown nor homely; of his style, that it is at times familiar, at times declamatory, but always happy, and often eloquent; of his doctrine, that neither the 'Calvinist' nor the 'Baptist' appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr. Spurgeon with relentless animosity, and with Gospel weapons, against irreligion, cant, hypocrisy, pride, and those secret bosom-sins which so easily beset a man in daily life; and to sum up all in a word, it is enough to say of the man himself, that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity.” More than a hundred years after his death, Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world. For this reason, Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon.

LORD, RENEW YOUR WONDERS

---

SPIRITUAL GIFTS FOR TODAY

---

The Word Among Us Press At the beginning of the Second Vatican Council, Blessed Pope John XXIII offered a prayer asking the Holy Spirit to “Renew your wonders in our time, as though for a new Pentecost." The rediscovery of the charismatic gifts by ordinary Catholics throughout the world was an answer to that prayer. Damian Stayne, who is known internationally for his healing ministry, shows readers how the spiritual gifts of prophecy, healing, and deliverance were used by Jesus, the early Church, and the saints—and why we need them operating in the Church today. He provides not only amazing stories of God's presence and work in our time but also a host of practical instructions on how to grow in these gifts. This book is both inspiring and a challenge to Catholics to be open to the gifts of the Spirit in order to bring others to Christ.

WHAT EVERY WIFE SHOULD KNOW

Partridge Africa "I remember that one day I looked at him and I could not remember why I married this man. He no longer had any of the good qualities that made me fall madly in love with him. He felt like a total stranger and the distance between us just got bigger and bigger. We were no longer functioning like a unit, but we were more like two ships passing each other in the night. We both suffered in silence during this period and I had no desire to talk or spend time with him." This book is for every wife that doubts if she married the right person. You find yourself yearning to feel a powerful connection with him again. It investigates why this distance finds its way into a marriage and offers the only solution is to follow the blueprint of the Creator of the holy matrimony. The focus of this book is on the role of the wife within marriage. It explains submission in a way that would make you excited to be a submissive wife after understanding the reason behind it and the results that it yields. God's purpose for marriage is revealed and you will then realise that God has a vested interest in your marriage being a success! "The way He designed marriage was for us to recognise that each has a part to play and OUR happiness are dependent on how we choose to execute our role in line with the Word of God."

UNSTOPPABLE INCREASE: KEYS TO UNLOCKING THE ABUNDANT LIFE GOD HAS FOR YOU

Oral Roberts Evangelistic Association What is our part when it comes to walking in unstoppable increase in our lives and what does the God-kind of increase look like? God is an "if-then" God. When we want to see God move in our lives, we have to do something first. Then—and only then—will He do His part. He promises us in His Word salvation, healing, provision, restoration, wisdom and increase... but only if we believe, receive, confess, obey and give to Him in faith, believing for our harvests. Only He can do what He can do. But only you and I can do what we can do. Perhaps you've been through some sort of wilderness experience and you've wondered, Where is God in all this? There is a real devil in the world, and according to God's Word in John 10:10, he is working overtime to steal, kill and destroy. But that scripture also says Jesus is present in your life too, and He has come so you could have life...abundant life...life that is overflowing with provision and filled with increase in every area...spirit, soul and body.

THE WONDERS OF SPEAKING IN TONGUES

XinXii In his passionate desire to see believers walk in the supernatural, Dr. Mark Amoateng has put together this book: "The Wonders of Speaking in Tongues" to stir up believers into greater dimension of spiritual manifestation. The book is not written to accentuate a doctrine, rather to position the believer to experience the promise of the Lord Jesus Christ as revealed in Mark 16:17, "And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name ...they will speak with new tongues." The benefits of speaking in tongues are immense and the wonders are bewildering, as evident in this book. Anyone who speaks and prays in tongues can have access to mysteries that the human mind cannot comprehend. "For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God. Indeed, no one understands him; he utters mysteries with his spirit." 1 Corinthians 14:2. As you read, I encourage to allow the Holy Spirit to minister to you.

iUniverse This book is not about religion, but rather about spirituality. It is about how to find and know God-often in spite of religion. It explains our need for spiritual nourishment in order to achieve spiritual health. It explains how the lack of spiritual health can lead to despair and spiritual death. It shows how we are taught not to believe in God-the source of spiritual nourishment. In the absence of an interactive relationship with God, we default to inadequate worldly substitutes. There are those who believe that what God wants from us is obedience through religious conformity. In truth, he wants a personal relationship with each of us, not for his benefit, but for ours. Unfortunately, as you'll come to see, the United States in the present day is perhaps the most difficult time and place in the history of human-kind for people to maintain their spiritual health. The time will come when the only thing you can take from this life is your relationship, if you have one, with God. If this book holds no interest for you now, put it on a shelf and pull it down when its relevance is inescapable.
