HOW TO DO MISSION ACTION PLANNING

PRAYER, PROCESS AND PRACTICE

SPCK How to Do Mission Action Planning (SPCK, 2009) was the first book to appear on the MAP process, at a time when it was beginning to have a significant impact. In this fully revised and expanded edition, the authors offer further critical evaluation and theological reflection, by drawing on the experiences of people who have been using the MAP process in different contexts from their own: Fr Damian Feeney, parish priest and Catholic Missioner of Lichfield diocese Canon David Banbury, leader of Parish Mission Support, Blackburn diocese The Rt Revd Dr Alan Smith, Bishop of St Albans Dr Stephen Hance, Canon Missioner of Southwark diocese Linda Rayner, the United Reformed Church co-ordinator for Fresh Expressions 'This is a rare book - a refreshing meditation on planning for mission - and one that is rooted in spirituality. As the authors show, the church and its mission arise from our vision of God. And once that vision has been realised, churches are able to become more intentional about their mission. Our vocation to share God's love is not an option or an afterthought. It is the heart and soul of our faith. Mission - and our planning of it - should not fill us with fear or foreboding. Rather, as the authors argue, the call to share God's love can be evermore meaningful, even as mission becomes more methodical.' The Very Revd Prof. Martyn Percy, Dean of Christ Church, Oxford 'This is a must-read for anyone using MAP. The rich theological reflection, the detailed unpacking of the 4 MAP phases and the learning offered by the 5 guest practitioners add up to an impressive offering. This book enables good questions to be asked, overflows with wise reflection and contains oodles of practical examples, ideas and resources. I commend it to all local church leaders who are seeking to discern how best to translate the prayer 'your kingdom come' into appropriate church and congregational action.' John Dunnett, General Director, CPAS 'This timely revision is honest, well researched and carefully put together - an important contribution to the necessary change of culture required in today's Church.' Julian Henderson, Bishop of Blackburn

PRACTICING PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

ITS THEOLOGICAL MEANING AND SPIRITUAL VALUE

Wipf and Stock Publishers Throughout history Christians have prayed for the dead. This book challenges Protestants, who seldom pray for the dead, to begin doing so, and Roman Catholics and Eastern Orthodox, who pray only for the Christian dead, to include the unsaved as well. Gould discusses the meaning of prayer for final consummation of all things, growth of the blessed in heaven, purification of the imperfect in purgatory, and salvation of the unsaved in hell--identifying the necessary conception of the afterlife required by each particular prayer. He also reflects on the spiritual value of prayer for the departed--how it enhances faith, builds hope, and sharpens discipleship--and provides some sample prayers for public liturgy and private devotion. In essence, Practicing Prayer for the Dead offers an outline of theology from the perspective of death, arguing that prayer for all the departed is one aspect of a tightly knit web of doctrines. The argument, while revisionary in some respects, is orthodox, ecumenical, and integrative, engaging a range of academic disciplines so as to be biblically accurate, historically informed, and philosophically reasoned.

LEISURE

A SPIRITUAL NEED

Wipf and Stock Publishers Leisure: A Spiritual Need presents an impressive and articulate case for the integration of authentic leisure into every aspect of our lives, showing that leisure is of the essence of Christianity, and a vital component of our spiritual growth. In dealing with an important subject that is rarely addressed, Leonard Doohan points out that leisure is a multi billion dollar a year industry that often leaves its consumers tense and stunted in spirit. Authentic leisure, he maintains, is more than a relaxation response to the stresses and pressures of modern life. It's an attitude that must be integrated into every aspect of our lives--work, recreation, prayer, family life, community building, and national ethos in order to make us more fully human and more fully Christian. Particularly effective is the author's development of the concept of sabbatical living. Drawing on Scripture and church teachings, he presents it as a way of coping with the stress of contemporary society and of fostering a fuller spiritual life. Without a spiritual approach to life that is nourished through authentic leisure, maintains the author, we will continue to face burnout and spiritual apathy rather than achieving a healthier approach to life and discipleship.

LEARNING CONVERSATIONAL PRAYER

Liturgical Press The very idea of praying personal petitions aloud in front of others makes many people uncomfortable. Yet, those who have overcome their fears and tried this form of prayer are quick to express how rewarding they find it. Rosalind Rinker has refined this form of shared-prayer, having practiced, lectured, and written about it for more than twenty-five years. She explains what it is and how, with the help of the Holy Spirit, it can lead to a new and more meaningful prayer life within a group, within your family, or in your own private devotion.

GROWTH IN GRACE

THROUGH REASON AND REVELATION

Growth in Grace alone will not bring you into harmony with God, man, or the universe. However, author and Reverend Paul Lachlan Peck offers some new slants on life-ideas about crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension--that may have escaped your attention up until now. He also discusses questions that many of us have about our Christian tenets and heritage. In Growth in Grace, Peck outlines a spiritual road map to personal growth, bringing an understanding to subjects that he considers important because of their controversial nature. Also, you will find some different ideas about prayer--how to pray successfully and know that your prayers are being answered. Moving on from the concept of petition to affirmation is a giant step toward understanding how prayer really works in a person's life. Spiritual growth comes one day, one experience, and one challenge at a time. By studying the biblical perspectives presented in Growth in Grace, you will open your mind to even greater grace within. This will allow the grace of God to enter into every thought, feeling, word, and action of your life.

THE MYSTERY OF PRAYER

Martinus Institute

STUDIES IN JEWISH PRAYER

Zohar Media In this collection of essays, Professor Zahavy explores the origins and early history of prayer in Judaism. He examines the growth of rabbanic liturgy from immediately after the destruction of the Temple in 70 CE until the close of the Talmud of the Land of Israel. Zahavy shows how rabbanic rules for prayer reflect the historical circumstances of the Jews in late antique Israel. He argues, based on close textual analysis, that rabbis had little influence over the governance of synagogues in the first and second centuries.

THINKING GOD

THE MYSTICISM OF RABBI ZADOK OF LUBLIN

KTAV Publishing House, Inc. This work is the first study in any language of the thought and writings of Rabbi Zadok HaKohen of Lublin (1823-1900), who created a blend of ecstatic

Hasidism and intellectual Talmud study. With extensive citations of his writings, it will be an entry point to his thought for many American readers. To illuminate R. Zadok's innovative spiritual path, in which one attains mystical experience through intellectual study of Torah, Brill explores the realm of spiritual psychology with particular attention to individual growth, sin, determinism, and pluralism. He shows that R. Zadok's thought combined mystical, Aristotelian, and psychological elements. This work also sheds important light on Lithuanian talmudic intellectualism and Polish Hasidism. It is the first book to present a critical, analytical portrait of hasidic theology. Particular attention is paid to R. Zadok's teacher, Rabbi Mordekhai Leiner of Izbica, whose individualistic philosophy undergirds R. Zadok's teachings on the subject of free will. Finally, this superb study addresses the question of how a Jewish thinker in a traditional milieu was able to derive a theology with many elements we would consider modern, even though he was largely insulated from and, in theory, opposed to contemporary Western, non-religious thinkers. "The eight essays, written by Catholic scholars, explore the relationship between spirituality and moral theology from such important vantage points as history, conversion, vocation, personal prayer, liturgy, right relationships, docility to the Spirit, and discipleship. They deal with the issues that emerge at the interface of theology and lived Christian experience." THE GENESIS OF HOW TO PRAY FOR YOUR CHURCH

BRINGING DISUNITY INTO UNITY

XinXii Few of us experience a church's beginning, but all experience the aftermath. A church's foundation doesn't guarantee its future trajectory. Growth is deviant without obedience, faith, and sacrifice. Drift from reliance on God to dependence on man is relentless, fueled by ignorance, complacency, and power-plays. Course corrections are necessary to survive. Mission and vision establish our pathway, but only a sense of purpose keeps us on course. We have relegated the notion of devotion to religious rhetoric. Severing it from rhetoric and grafting it into action goes against our nature. Four attributes are crucial to a church's vision and pilgrimage. They are tenacity, perseverance, integrity, and humility. They reinforce one another, and none stand alone. Adversity is their sustenance and the environment in which they thrive. These factors, individually and collectively, portray the dynamic tug-of-war between the flesh and the spirit. We can't pray effectively if we don't understand their intricacies? Principles presented in this book will equip you to recognize the signs of approaching problems and failures and guide you in how to counteract them in your prayer closet. This book presents spiritual principles and Key Insights for Prayer: · Free you from the fallacy that your church is static in maturity and inerrant in its pursuit of vision and mission · Improve your understanding of the conflict between spiritual factors that propel your church toward God's objective and fleshly factors that struggle to bring it down to what is humanly possible · Help you think beyond the superficial expressions of a church's problems and recognize their root causes · Compel you to question what we've traditionally accepted as sacred and question practices commonly viewed as innocent but may be detrimental to a church's growth and vitality.

COMMITTED WORSHIP: ADULT CONVERSION AND INITIATION

Liturgical Press Volume II develops a sacramental theology that addresses the needs of all adult Christians. The chapters on Marriage show how conversion both humanizes and Christianizes human sexuality, providing the context for a foundational rethinking of the meaning of the context for a foundational rethinking of the meaning of Christian Marriage. The discussion of Orders examines the responsibilities of ordained leaders and throws light on the rise of clericalism and on the meaning of priestly identity and ministry, in addition to clarifying the relationship between the priesthood of the laity and that of the ordained. A discussion of Christian nurture explains the practical and theoretical meaning of infant Baptism. This volume also examines the three sacraments that most foster ongoing conversion: Reconciliation, Anointing and Eucharist. After situating each of these rituals in its Biblical and historical setting, the author shows how each contributes to ongoing Christian conversion.

UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE

PRAYERS, STRATEGIES AND SCRIPTURES TO UNLOCK POTENTIAL AND TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE FOR VICTORIOUS LIVING

Independently Published UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE is a book that offers prayers, strategies and scriptures to transform your life for accelerated growth and victorious living. This book bridges the gap between the power of prayer and the practical application of Kingdom principles to empower you to unlock your potential and seize your success. Prayer is a powerful tool, but you cannot simply pray about a goal, aspiration or a change that you desire to make in your life and then sit back and do nothing to move your life in the direction of the goal or desired change. It is only when prayer is coupled with aligned and consistent action that you can begin to drive your life in the direction of your vision and deepest desires. There are a lot of people who say they want to change their lives so they can live victoriously, but they are not willing to do the necessary work that's required to effect real change. ...Don't let this be you!!! All human progress happens because someone was willing to work towards it. Every great person in the bible who wanted to experience transformation and victory, not only prayed in faith but they also aligned their actions with their prayers. UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE, shows you how to craft your life in such a way as to radically alter the course of your life for acceleration and manifestation. UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE is divided into four chapters: Chapter 1. Personal Efficacy - deals with the characteristics that you must cultivate to start effecting positive change in your life. Chapter 2. Living Beyond Your Feelings - deals with managing difficult emotions so that you are not controlled or defeated by your emotions. Chapter 3. Seizing Your Success - offers principles and action steps for lifelong success and achievement Chapter 4. Becoming A Better You - offers principles and action steps for self-actualization and maximizing potential. For most of my life I have been on a mission to empower ordinary people, just like you and me to: step beyond the stereotypes, rise above adversity, pursue their purpose with tenacity and live out their definition of success so that they can live victoriously. Through my travels, book signings, social media presence, my training company, Strategies For Empowered Living Inc., and my ministry Cassandra Mack Ministries, I have discovered that people everywhere want to know how to bridge the gap between who they are now and who they have the potential and capacity to become. They are looking for timeless truths and actionable strategies to make the most of their lives. This is where UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE comes in. UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE, offers prayers, bible scriptures and strategies designed to give you a gentle nudge and sometimes a robust push to empower you to move your life in the direction of your vision, press pass the internal roadblocks and tap into new realms of possibility. The reality of living your most blessed life is this: Each of us must learn to give birth to our own potential by cultivating the seeds of greatness, creativity and resilience that God has placed inside of us so that we may fulfill our divine destiny. You were born into this world to make a world of difference with your ideas, gifts and talents. All you have to do is be who you are already purposed by to be. I want to help you dream again and dream bigger than you've ever imagined. Through the scriptures, prayers and principles shared in UNLEASH YOUR UNSTOPPABLE it is my goal to help you seize your vision and persevere until success happens.
