interested in creative writing? Well look no further as we have created this book of writing prompts and story starters for kids in Grades 1-3! Why are writing prompts important for young kids? At this age, children have the creative ability to write about a range of simple issues but usually they just need a bit of inspiration on how to start writing. Hence, our story starters can help them to tap into their imagination. To reinforce a good writing habit, it is also necessary to learn writing skills at this age. When kids begin writing, they will further learn how to put their thoughts on paper and how to use words to describe concepts. Now, to get them to enjoy writing, let's help to tap into their creativity of using fun writing prompts. ENJOY!

CRDG Imaginative Writing The Elements of Craft Longman Publishing Group Janet Burroway's bestselling Imaginative Writing: The Elements of Craft explores the craft of creative writing in four genres: Fiction, Poetry, Drama, and Creative Nonfiction. A trade author as well as a professor of creative writing, Burroway brings her years of teaching and writing to this book. "Try-This" exercises appear throughout each chapter. Provocative and fun, these exercises help writers develop the specific writing skills discussed within the text. "Working toward a draft" exercises encourage writers to develop their ideas into complete drafts. In response to reviewer requests, the preface "Invitation to the Writer" has been expanded into a full chapter. This new chapter introduces writers to important skills such as reading like a writer, journaling, and participating in the writer's workshop. This book offers lots of ideas and encouragement at a great price!

Writing daily will help your student develop their writing skills. Practicing sentence development is a fundamental key to becoming an excellent writer. The 1st Grade Writing Journal can be used in conjunction with ready-made story-starters. It can be used daily by student writers to record their daily activities, adventures, and imaginative thoughts. Journals can help students clarify their thoughts. Taking time to jot down feelings and thoughts about daily events can give young writers an opportunity to discover what they think and how they feel about different topics. Writing in a journal is comfortable for beginning writers because it is a casual and informal process. It isn't structured or graded. Students are allowed to free-write and become immersed in expression. Students should be allowed to write about different topics, which will give them the opportunity to improve their writing skills while exploring their thoughts without being chastised for grammar, usage, or other errors. Let this journal be an "idea book"--a place where the student is free to "think" in writing. The Awesome Writing Prompts Journal for Kids Creative Writing Prompts and Story Starters to Help Children Practice and Improve Their Writing Skills Great writing prompt journal for kids between the 3rd and 5th grade. Perhaps you have a child who loves writing and wants to develop their skills. Or perhaps your child is a reluctant writer who needs to practice writing essays and stories to keep up with their peers. Whatever the case may be, you'll find this journal filled with writing prompts is perfect for improving children's imagination, creativity, reading skills, vocabulary and comprehension. The writing prompts in this book are ideal for children in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th grade, but older students will also enjoy the interesting topics and fun story-starters. This is an ideal book for parents looking for a way to extend their child at home. What's more, the finished journal makes a fantastic keep-sake. If you homeschool or tutor a child, this is a great way to get their creative juices flowing. Teachers will love this brilliant book of prompts with a topic for every occasion. You'll never run out of creative writing ideas and interesting story starters. This book is a great gift for aspiring writers. Here are a few examples of great prompts in the book: You blow out your birthday candles and make a wish. Immediately the wish comes true. What did you wish for? What happens? Your dad is a scientist. One of his top-secret projects is to bring the dinosaurs back to life. He's brought a baby dinosaur home from the lab. How do you look after it? What type of transportation will people have in the future? A strange little door appears in your bedroom. You can squeeze through the door if you try. What do you find on the other side? Writing prompts include interesting story starters, but also 'would you rather' questions (like would you rather be able to fly or be incredibly strong) and persuasive essay topics to improve debating skills. Express Yourself!
