THE RIGHT TO REPAIR

RECLAIMING THE THINGS WE OWN

Cambridge University Press In recent decades, companies around the world have deployed an arsenal of tools - including IP law, hardware design, software restrictions, pricing strategies, and marketing messages - to prevent consumers from fixing the things they own. While this strategy has enriched companies almost beyond measure, it has taken billions of dollars out of the pockets of consumers and imposed massive environmental costs on the planet. In The Right to Repair, Aaron Perzanowski analyzes the history of repair to show how we've arrived at this moment, when a battle over repair is being waged - largely unnoticed - in courtrooms, legislatures, and administrative agencies. With deft, lucid prose, Perzanowski explains the opaque and complex legal landscape that surrounds the right to repair and shows readers how to fight back.

DISRUPTIVE INNOVATION

UBER, AIRBNB AND OTHER COMPANIES RESHAPING THE MARKET

The Rosen Publishing Group, Inc In 1995, the term "disruptive innovation" was coined to describe innovations that disrupt and threaten existing markets and consumer habits. These articles explore the growth of two of the most prominent "disruptive" tech companies, Uber and Airbnb, and how competitors and regulators have responded to the changing tides.

APPLIANCE SERVICE TECHNICIAN

This analysis covers the tasks performed by technicians who service domestic appliance products. The analysis identifies tasks and sub-tasks performed by such technicians, arranged in blocks of distinct operations relevant to that occupation. These blocks include workplace safety, business practices, tools and equipment, appliance installation, and diagnosis and repairs of electrical, mechanical, water, air, sealed, and gas systems. For each task, the document outlines the element of skill and knowledge needed to perform the task adequately, identifies any shifts or changes in technology that affect the task, lists tools and equipment required for the task, and provides an indication of whether the task has been validated by each province and territory. The appendix includes a list of tools and equipment used in the occupation, and a tabulation of the percentage of time a worker spends performing each block and task in a given year (by province/territory and for Canada as a whole).
