NGS 125TH ANNIVERSARY WORLD MAP

WALL MAPS COUNTRIES & REGIONS

This special edition map commemorates the National Geographic Society's 125th Anniversary with a modern spin on a classic map design. The map portrays a contemporary political world accompanied by two insets, showing the world as it appeared in 1888 and 1988--the Society's founding and centennial years. The design features an attractive color palette, clear borders, national capitals and major cities, airports, notable peaks, major rivers and lakes, and stunning ocean topography. This map makes for a beautiful object d'art as well as a wonderful conversation piece. The map is encapsulated in heavy-duty 1.6 mil laminate which makes the paper much more durable and resistant to the swelling and shrinking caused by changes in humidity. Laminated maps can be framed without the need for glass, so the frames can be much lighter and less expensive. Map Scale = 1:29,786,000 Sheet Size = 46" x 30.5"

PALESTINE AND SYRIAHANDBOOK FOR TRAVELLERS*CLASSROOM 15*HOW THE HOOVER FBI CENSORED THE DREAMS OF INNOCENT OREGON 4TH GRADERS

A result of an investigative report by tenacious University of Oregon journalism students, Classroom 15 tells the story of how the dreams of fourth-grade students at the Riverside School, Roseburg, in rural Oregon timber country, were crushed by the prevailing Red Scare, McCarthyism, state and societal censorship, and J. Edgar Hoover's FBI. The teacher of Classroom 15, known fondly as Mr. McFetridge, assigned a pen pal project in an effort to take geography lessons outside of the classroom. Imagining a place as far from Oregon as they possibly could, the students wrote letters to nine- and ten-year-old counterparts in the Soviet Union. Janice Boyle, the class secretary, reached out to Oregon's Congressional representative, Charles O. Porter, seeking assistance connecting with peers in Russia. Representative Porter forwarded the letter to the Secretary of State Christian Herter, and a week later the students received the shocking and disheartening news that their benign request had been needlessly denied. In the wake of McCarthyism, the Eisenhower administration subverted the assignment, fearing Communist propaganda would infect the innocent minds of eager Oregon schoolchildren. The students' plight quickly gained national attention with stories running from the Roseburg News-Review to the New York Times. The publicity didn't miss the attention of J. Edgar Hoover's FBI. His agents investigated. They traveled to Roseburg, collected evidence, and took it back to the Bureau's regional headquarters in Portland. The public reaction was swift and unrelenting. The teacher and the Congressman were attacked by outraged Roseburg citizens, the school board, and enraged Americans across the country. Classroom 15 is all the above and a page-turning adventure story told with the voices of the empowered, tenacious University of Oregon journalism students who took the nascent story and demonstrated their unwavering devotion to the journalistic process by telling the tale.
