Read The Hack and join the fight for the innocent today! PROFESSIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TESTIMONIAL: Mr. Patching is a crime fiction writer who guides the reader into the shadows, but draws you back out into the light with the help of "ultimate justice". "The Hack" is a work of fiction that deals with non-fictional issues - a novel that brought back memories of similar investigations I have experienced throughout my career, including those undertaken in cooperation with the Asian law enforcement family. The author asks of the reader:*

Is the character "Hunter" an evil killer or is he a devoted advocate? Is he truly good or purely evil? Are his actions, by any definition - legally, morally, emotionally, and/or spiritually - justified? Who are the real evil ones? Those with a warped sense of perceived power, privilege, and perversion, who believe they rule the planet... or... those who strongly believe in the concepts of truth, honor and justice? "The Hack" is a thoroughly enjoyable novel and very difficult to put down. The writer is an excellent, highly talented author, in my humble opinion. I look forward to reading more from Mr. Patching.
